

A close-up photograph of a breakfast plate. The plate is white and contains several items: three sunny-side-up eggs with bright yellow yolks, a pile of golden-brown fried potato wedges garnished with fresh green herbs, a stack of triangular pieces of bread with grill marks, and two large, round, spiral-shaped buns. In the background, there is a small white bowl of red sauce and a portion of a green salad with purple and green leaves. A white rectangular box with a thin black border is overlaid on the top left of the plate, containing the word 'ЗАВТРАКИ' in bold white Cyrillic letters.
